Dear Mr. Larry Christensen,

On June 22, 2010 AT&T Mobility LLC purchased from Celco Partnership d/b/a Verizon Wireless certain wireless properties that Verizon Wireless was required to divest under the Federal Communication Commission's order approving the Verizon Wireless acquisition of Alltel Corporation.¹ The divestitures ordered by the FCC included 100 wireless properties Verizon Wireless had earlier agreed to relinquish pursuant to a consent decree with the US Department of Justice.² The consent decree also required the transfer of related operational and network assets necessary to operate the properties, which include interconnection agreements.³

AT&T Mobility purchased the licenses and business units in 79 of those markets including all of North Dakota and South Dakota, almost all of Montana and Wyoming, and portions of Arizona, Utah, Colorado, New Mexico, Iowa, Nebraska, and Minnesota. Of these states, Verizon Wireless has assigned to AT&T Mobility the Alltel interconnection agreements for the states of Colorado, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota and Utah. With these assignments, AT&T Mobility has assumed all the rights and obligations of Alltel contained under these interconnection agreements.

¹ In the Matter of Applications of Celco Partnership d/b/a Verizon Wireless and Atlantis Holdings LLC For Consent to Transfer Control of Licenses, Authorizations, and Spectrum Manager and De Facto Transfer Leasing Arrangements and Petition for Declaratory Ruling that the Transaction is Consistent with Section 310(b)(4) of the Communications Act, FCC 08-258, (November 4, 2008) ("FCC Order")

² See United States of America et al. v. Verizon Communications Inc., and ALLTEL Corporation, Final Judgment, Case No. 08-cv-1878 (filed Oct. 30, 2008)

³ See FCC Order at pars. 24 and 159.

Accordingly, AT&T Mobility LLC hereby provides notice to Qwest Corporation of the above referenced assignments. The name of the assignee is: New Cingular Wireless PCS, LLC, d/b/a AT&T Mobility.
